POLICY

Applicable Regulations
ISA Rule 1004.1 - Any skater wishing to change teams, either temporarily or permanently, must complete the ISA Change of Team Form for signature by all the indicated parties.

In addition to the above rule it is recommended that all skaters leaving a team for any reason should also have this form filled out by themselves and their original team.

Any skater joining a team for an international competition or championship should also complete this form.

Procedure.

1. Print out one copy of the form.
2. Have all the relevant parties complete and sign the form.
3. Make copies of the original for distribution as follows:
    1. Original form to the original team.
    2. Copy to the State Association of the original team.
    3. Copy to the new team.
    4. Copy to the State Association of the new team if different from above.
    5. Copy for the skater's records.
